More stories at WordBlanks.com

Circulating Pathogens

1. Noun Plural _____
2. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
3. Noun _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Noun Plural _____
7. Verb Base Form _____
8. Animal - Plural _____
9. Clothing Plural _____
10. Noun Plural _____
11. Noun Plural _____
12. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
13. Verb Present Ends In Ing _____
14. First Name Of A Person _____
15. Noun _____
16. Noun Plural _____

Circulating Pathogens

While _____Noun Plural_____ of coughs, _____Verb Present ends in ING_____, fever and _____Noun_____ in the winter are nothing _____Adjective_____, we are seeing co-circulation of many _____Adjective_____ types of _____Noun Plural_____.

WHO officials _____Verb Base Form_____ that _____Animal - Plural_____ get vaccinated when possible, wear _____Clothing plural_____, and make sure indoor _____Noun Plural_____ are well ventilated.

"The _____Noun Plural_____ may not stop you being infected, but the _____Repeat Last Noun Plural_____ are certainly _____Verb Present ends in ING_____ significantly your chance of being hospitalized or _____Verb Present ends in ING_____," said Dr. _____First Name of a Person_____ _____Noun_____, head of _____Noun Plural_____ at WHO.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.