

What you say? Summer adventure disrespect cancelled that.

1. Verb Base Form
-

What you say? Summer adventure disrespect cancelled that.

Ty Dill, an adorable 6-year-old pickle boy with a mischievous twinkle in his eyes, is depicted playing basketball with his friends on the vibrant court. He's wearing a red and white striped t-shirt and blue shorts, his Verb Base Form filling the air. In another scene, he's gleefully splashing in the pool, the sun shining down on the sparkling water as his friends join him in the fun. create a story of him and his family Mr. Chill Dill and kids rich family living in Hollywood Hills in a mansion with newest technology and smart products, a basketball court, swimming pool and playground write story that is a daily guide for kids on how to work on a problem each day to repair or eliminate bad behavior. Write a 15 page book for kids that takes them on an adventure thru life learning valuable lessons and planting seeds that will stay in their minds and improve the behavior that children display. Mr. Chill Dill is a outspoken sarcastic opinionated business man, his wife TuSweet in a fashionista socialite always in the pickle newspapers, Ty's brother is 16 and is Sour D a hip hopper with a bad attitude at home but in public puts on a good show and a twin sister Sweetdee who is the model child at home hides her bad behavior and changes when she's out in public. Create a chapter in a book that teaches the children about disrespecting you self, and being a disrespectful person. The Dill's want their kids to learn about life by seeing the effects of their actions. So take me on a journey in this chapter where they let their kids learn the error in their disrespectful ways.