My Family is Special

My name is           Proper Noun          . I am   old. I want to share about my family because I think it is important.

In my family, I have two dads. They are both very   and love me a lot. We do many   things together, like going to the park, playing           Noun          , and cooking dinner. I feel   when I am with them.

Some people ask me questions about my family. They might wonder why I have two dads. They are , but           Adverb           they don't know how to ask . I understand that they want to know more, but it's important to be respectful when asking questions.

I want everyone to know that families can look different. Some families have a mom and a dad, and some families have two moms or two           Noun Plural          . All families are   in their own way. What matters most is the love we share.

I do not feel ashamed of my family. I am   of my dads and the life we have together. I wish more families were like mine because love is what makes a family .

If someone asks me about my family, I can say, "I have two dads, and I love them very much!" If I feel   or , I can talk to my dads about it. They always help me feel better.

It's great that my family is . I am   to share my story!
