

October

1. Noun
2. Proper Noun
3. Verb Present Ends In Ing
4. Proper Noun
5. Proper Noun
6. Adjective
7. Verb Past Tense
8. Verb Past Tense
9. Proper Noun
10. Noun

October

October arrives, bringing rain. _____ Noun practice continues. One evening as _____ Proper Noun is _____ Verb Present ends in ING back through the castle corridors, he encounters Nearly- Headless _____ Proper _____ Noun, the not-quite beheaded Gryffindor ghost. _____ Proper Noun is looking _____ Adjective and Harry asks why, only to hear Nick explain that he has just been _____ Verb Past Tense from the Headless Hunt on account of his head being unable to come all the way off. The conversation ends in a flash, as they are _____ Verb Past Tense by Mrs. _____ Proper Noun, Filch the caretaker's _____ Noun, and Nick warns Harry to hurry off, so as not to get in trouble for tracking in mud. Filch spies Harry and drags him into his office, begins to write up a punishment complaint, but is interrupted by a large crash.