Afraid of the Dark

I was home alone and scared out of my Noun Plural. I could hear the wind Verb Present ends in ING, and off in the distance a/ Noun was Verb Present ends in ING. I crossed the room, Verb Past Tense the Noun, and climbed into bed, pulling the Noun over my Part of Body. Then it happened. I could hear a/ Noun Verb Present ends in ING up the stairs. My Plural Body Part started to chatter and my knees began Verb Present ends in ING. The Noun was Verb Base Form open and there was a Adjective Noun with hair all over his Part of Body. It was my father . "Hi, we're home", he said adverb. "Hope you weren't afraid of staying home alone." "No" I said, lying through my Plural Body Part.
