Overworked Elves

It was Christmas Eve, and Santa's workshop was in chaos. The elves had been working nonstop, crafting

_____ Adjective _____ Noun Plural for hours without a break. Poor _____ First Name of a Person, who was in charge of the _____ Noun Plural, was so exhausted they/ accidentally glued their / _____ Part of Body to a _____ Noun! Meanwhile, another elf named _____ First Name of a Person, tripped over a pile of _____ Noun Plural and spilled a whole bucket of _____ Liquid everywhere. Santa, though, kept calling out orders with his booming _____ Adjective voice, insisting they needed to meet the _____ Number quota by midnight!

Finally, the elves had enough. _____ First Name of a Person stood up, wobbling from exhaustion, and shouted "We need a break!" The other elves cheered _____ Emotion-ly and dropped their _____ Noun Plural, forming a line to demand a holiday treat like _____ Food. Santa, see the _____ Emotion on their _____ Adjective faces, agreed and treated them all to a warm mug of _____ Liquid. After a few laughs and some well-deserved rest, the elves got back to work, with just enough energy to complete the quota on time -- but only because they promised next year would include way more _____ Fun Activity and way less _____ Boring Activity.
