Angry Letter To Customer Service

employee

Dear Company name I am e-mailing you because I had a very experiences with one of your employees when I wastoday. Between 1:30PM-1:40PM today I was driving on S.
Road, and I wascut off by acolorwith your company name printed on the side of it. Not only was I put an in danger by one of yourdrivers, but I was also given the middleby him after words. The driver then proceeded to call me a Not only was I and by this encounter, but I was also for whoever was driving your truck and am baffled by how such aandandperson car hold a job at a professional business. I do not know this person's name, all that I can tell you is it was an adult with some seriousproblems that was driving one of yourat around 1:30PM.
I seriously hope that for the good of your company, you will take some sort of action to figure out who this of yours was that did this and give them a	Adjective	Noun
