

Phone with a Bad Ringtone

1. Adjective
2. Noun
3. Verb
4. Adjective
5. Adjective
6. Conjunction
7. Noun
8. Noun
9. Preposition
10. Noun
11. Interjection
12. Adverb
13. Verb
14. Adverb
15. Preposition
16. Noun
17. Interjection
18. Conjunction

Phone with a Bad Ringtone

One of my most _____ Adjective _____ moments was a time in 6th grade that my _____ Noun _____ Verb _____ in front of my class. It was embarrassing because that ringtone was a _____ Adjective _____ ringtone that looks like a ringtone for _____ Adjective _____ kids, like Pokemon. I put that ringtone on my phone _____ Conjunction _____ there wasn't a better ringtone I could find. When I heard a _____ Noun _____ said that was a Pokemon ringtone, I got very embarrassed. I had to walk up to the _____ Noun _____ and give my phone. She put _____ Preposition _____ in the _____ Noun _____ and said, "You may get the phone after-school."; _____ Interjection _____ When I walked back _____ Adverb _____ a lot of people _____ Verb _____ me about the phone, so I felt _____ Adverb _____. I focused my eyes _____ Preposition _____ the _____ Noun _____ and do my work. During in my work time, I _____ Interjection _____ Why did my phone rang on that moment?"; I heard that the students were saying to each other that Andrew got his phone confiscated and that ringtone was a kids'; ringtone. I still felt embarrassed during the last period of the day, _____ Conjunction _____ soon I got better.