Think Again

Once upon a time, there was a _____Noun merchant who decided to give away his wealth. When his friends, knew about his _____Noun decision, they _____Noun to his _____Noun asking for a piece of the _____Noun. The _____Noun man on earth, more than a _____Noun _____Noun dollar worth, was the first one there. He was given what he asked for, a few billionsâ! Then came the _____Noun _____Noun man for another few billions, then the third and so onâ! After a handful of our _____Noun idols were done, the _____Noun I mean _____Noun man's wealth was reduced to a mere _____Noun cents. Very annoyed, he then decided to give up his remaining _____Noun to as many people as possible. So he drove by to the poorest neighborhood in town, giving a whole cent to the first _____Noun _____Noun people he found.

As a matter of fact, the rich man's _____Noun was almost totally "sucked"; by other _____Noun peopleâ!;

And there was another _____Noun merchant, more prudent, and âfond of quantum theory. Just like his generous fellow, he chose to give up his _____Noun. However, he added a rule as to the distribution of his _____Noun: any _____Noun would only be allowed to receive whole _____Noun of his or her personal _____Noun. Whoever owns _____Noun can only receive _____Noun _____Noun _____Noun or any multiple of _____Noun no circumstances can he get a fraction of _____Noun.

So

when the _____<sup>Noun</sup> man on earth, still thirsty of more _____<sup>Noun</sup> knocked at the wise man's door and asked for a few billions, his demand was _____<sup>Noun</sup> as he couldn't comply with the new quantum rule: according to this rule, the _____<sup>Noun</sup> man on earth can only receive a multiple of his _____<sup>Noun</sup> _____<sup>Noun</sup> dollar _____<sup>Noun</sup>. Since the generous man doesn't have that much funds, the _____<sup>Noun</sup> man on earth was sent home without an extra penny.
