My Thanksgiving Day

I love Thanksgiving! Every Thanksgiving morning, I wake up early to the smell of freshbaking in the Mom has been cooking since dawn! I come downstairs wearing myand turn on the Noun to Verb the Adjective parade, live from Location Location I just love to see all ofballoons and thefloats. Before you know it, it is time to get ready for our company. Every year, I wear a special Thanksgivingthat has a picture of aon it. After I get dresses, I help Mom set up thetable and chairs and put out thedishes andsilverware. I fold each napkin into the shape of a boat and place itnext to each plate. We have atable just for the kids. The adults say we all act tooto sit with them and that they can't even hear themselves when we are at their table. Pretty soon, my Number Adjective Adjective and my Uncle Jim andAdjectiveAunt Jane arrive. The kids like to go out in the yard and play until dinner is ready. My uncle and my dad sit in bigand watchon two while my aunt and my mom finish centerpiece of dinner is theandandturkey, all full of we also have mashed Noun sauce, Adjective beans and my mom's Adverb on top. After we have eaten so much that we feel like we couldverb there is still one thing left to do. We all say what we are thankful for. This year, I am most thankful for my family, as they may be. I hope all of you have a Thanksgiving that is as	Adjective	and	Adjective	as mine!
Adjectiveas
