My Artwork

I sat in my artclass wondering how everybody managed to draw so well. Take _____Male name_____for example. His drawing was a MASTERPIECE! I can never manage to do art as _____Adjective_____as everybody else. There's this girl in my class who's really good at _____Body part_____painting. Whenever I try to draw, my picture would turn into a _____Adjective_____mess.

_____Male name_____ are you ready to draw your picture yet?"; Said my art teacher, Mr _____Silly word_____.

"Sure!"; I shouted.

I couldn't find my pencil, so I had to ask to borrow one from a very strange girl named Trisha. She was into magic.

I put the pencil in my hand then I began to draw. I moved my hand to the top right of the paper, but the pencil moved it to the left bottom. It began to draw with out me! It started to draw an elephant holding a ball. I looked over at Trisha, and she smiled. Trisha had given me a magic pencil! And it drew the best picture in the class!
