Anthem: Creating your own society

My perfect ideal society would have a Adjective government, and i would be the supreme ruler. Citizens in my society could Verb Noun for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Everyday the Adjective children would go to school at Time O'clock. They would learn how to Verb on their Noun while Verb ending in ing. While the children are at school, the adults make money to provide for their families. This wonderful society of mine would be called Name of my society.
