Crazy Poetry

Hello, I'm (state your State your name). I have to come up with a very funny poem. Let's see. I got it! There once was a (animal) named Kiki. She Adverb every day. Kiki loved to play with a Animal named Auro. They both seemed like two Noun Plural together. One time, they came up with a idea. They were going to make a (noun)! First, they got some Noun and added a Food to it. They slopped it together using hot glue. It ended up being very Adjective. They decided never to do that again.

Yes! I finally made a great poem. Hope everyone likes it!
