2011 in Reveiw

Once again it's time to look back at the year and give everyone an update on the Wright family.

We got to travel a bit this year. We went west to _____Location_____for the Martin Handcart Company reunion pioneer trek that we planned. What a _____Adjective_____place! We pushed and pulled those handcarts and survived the whole thing. It was _____Adjective_____but a great experience. Chad is so _____Adjective_____and he did a great job planning and coordinating everything.

We also went to Durango, CO for my brother's _____Event_____. It was a treat to visit a different part of CO, as well as being able to see parts of _____Location_____that we don't normally drive through to get to CO. Arches National Park looks like you're on _____Location_____

We spent many weeks putting a new roof on our _____Noun_____. Fortunately, we have some fantastic friends and neighbors who helped us so much. Chad was on the roof every spare minute and the kids and I were on clean up crew (3 layers of roofing makes quite a mess!) We're _____Adjective_____that's not something that has to be done very often!

The kids keep us busy with various activities and entertain us all the time, especially the younger ones. We keep a record of _____Adjective_____things the kids say and Avery and Brayden are often reminding us to "write that down

We keep Verb ending in ing away and trying to take care of the best things in life. We hope that you and yours are healthy and well. Have a great holiday season!
