More stories at WordBlanks.com

Hansal And Greatal

Hansal And Greatal

Once there was a brother and sister that one day went on a walk in a deep dark forest and about 32 miles into the forest they saw a small little house that was made all out of candy. Then they knocked on the gram cracker door but no-one was there so they Walked right in. They looked around and started to eat some candy and then a evil witch came and told them to eat as much candy as they please.But in about 20 minutes the witch took greatal and tried to cook her and locked hansal in a huge bird cage. But them hansal put a candy cane in his pocket earlyer and rememberd so he thrued the candy cane at her neck and she fell to the groud. Hansal unlocked the cage and helped Greatal down from the stove and they ran back to there town with out stopping and then they ren into the police station and told them everything so the went to the little candy house and arrested the evil witch!

The End!

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.