What it will be like in sixth grade

1.	Adjective
	First Name
3.	Adjective
4.	Verb
5.	Adjective
6.	Location
	Adjective
8.	Adjective
9.	Adjective
10.	Verb Ending In Ing
11.	Noun
	Verb Ending In Ing
	Verb
14.	Adjective
	Adjective
	Adjective

What it will be like in sixth grade

Sixth grade is not too You have period one, two, three, four, five and six! That's just to many numbers! In 1st period, you have Mr. Johnson, the math teacher. When you take a test, there is a kid named and what all he does is make the most sounds you'd ever verb When you leave 1st period, you go to 2nd period, otherwise known as "The Class with the Teacher Ever."; Ms. Jolie! Dun, Dun! She tecahes English, but not to well. She is from and speaks Spanish. She should probraly teach spanish, but I guess the school is limited on english teachers.
When you leave 2nd period, you go to science with Mr. Blob. He says "like"; after every word he says. For example, yesterday he said, "Ok guys! We should, like take our, like quiz in like I guess like five minutes."; See?
After 3rd, you go to theperiod ever! Lunch! Our school makes thechicken nuggets ever! They also makenachos, too. After lunch, you go to Geogrophy where Mrs.Rod is obsesed aboutyour hands. She's a neat Finally, you go to period six wheich is P.E. I wish our teacher made us at least do somebecause all we do is When we leave P.E, your legs and arms ache so Then you get to go home.
When the bell rings and you have the same schedule as me, you'll want to be the first out the door. The part about the end of the day is that you know you'll have to go to school tommorow with the samekids and teachers.