The Call Center

One day at the call center I work at _____ First name was looking really frightened by the end of his call. I asked him what was wrong and he never answered. So I thought maybe he just had a bad call. Then _____ Female name _____ asked _____ Male name if _____ First name was alright. Then all of a sudden _____ First name started yelling at everyone around him. Then he pulled out a _____ Weapon and started shooting and beating everyone. The police were called and _____ First name was taken down and arrested. Police say _____ First name had a disease called _____ Disease; and had committed suicide after. The reason for this disease to take over was because _____ A women's name women told him he was crazy and shouldn't be working there cause it's all a scam.
