My Day at Lower Cape May

It's tough being a high school Noun these days. I start off the day by waking up Adverb hoping i don't Verb and miss the Noun. It's winter time now so there is always a Adjective wind in the morning. Once I arrive at school, I walk through the Adjective hallways and search for my Noun. The bus arrived late so I only have 2 minutes until class starts. With no time to Verb and my locker in B hallway, I scramble around the Adjective crowd that usually gathers between C and Main hallway and Adverb make it to my Adjective class of the day with Mr. Rosenberg and Mr. Morey.
This class is the highlight of my day because I Verb so much and Adverb have fun!
