A little poem

Twas the night before _____Event_____ when all through the house

Not a creature was stirring, not even a _____Animal_____.

The stockings were hung by the _____Location_____ with care,

In hopes that St _____First name_____ soon would be there.

The children were nestled all snug in their _____Plural noun_____

While visions of sugar-plums danced in their _____Plural noun_____.

And _____Person_____ in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,

Had just settled our _____Plural noun_____ for a long winter's nap.

When out on the _____Location_____ there arose such a clatter,

I sprang from the bed to see what was the matter.

Away to the _____Noun_____ I _____Past tense verb_____ like a flash,

Tore open the _____Plural noun_____ and threw up the sash.

The moon on the breast of the new-fallen snow

Gave the lustre of mid-day to _____Plural noun_____ below.

When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,

But a ___Adjective___ sleigh, and eight ___Adjective___ ___Animal plural___.

With a little old ___Noun___ so lively and quick,

I knew in a moment it must be St ___First name___.

More rapid than ___Plural noun___ his ___Animal plural___ they came,

And he whistled, and shouted, and called them by ___Noun___
