

Johnston Christmas Word Lib 2011

1. Verb
2. Animal
3. Location
4. Location
5. Location
6. Name Of A Person
7. Proper Noun
8. Adjective
9. Event
10. Verb Ending In Ing
11. Plural Noun

Johnston Christmas Word Lib 2011

Peg and Jerry have spent their year pretty much the way they usually do. Peg has continued working as nurse practitioner for St. Maryâ??s Hospital. She now works out of the clinics at Kamiah and Grangeville. She continues to _____ Verb as a 4-H Leader and won a special award for 15 years of service. Jerry divides his time between the ranch and H & R Block. Ranch life includes way too much hay (although the _____ Animal _____ enjoys the breakfast buffet that the stack outside their house provides) and right now he is gearing up for the busy season with H & R. They did visit Las _____ Location this spring for one of Pegâ??s conferences and came back appreciating their camping time in _____ Location City that much more.

The kids are all busy in school. Daniel and Eric are working on their degrees at the University of Idaho. The whole family visited them for Dadâ??s weekend and enjoyed _____ Location York _____ Name of a person _____ hot dogs. People start wondering if Eric and Dan are okay if they do not show up in a _____ Proper noun _____ York Johnnyâ??s picture every once in a while. Eric spent the summer work on a trail crew for the Forest Service while Dan had a good time for a few weeks sleeping out on Marge The Barge on Tolo Lake. Maria spends her time reading Literature (imagine that with a snobby _____ Adjective _____ accent) and working at the library at Lewis-Clark State College. She did get to go a Marinerâ??s baseball _____ Event _____ and rafting in Riggins with her buddies from Carroll this summer so she is not too pasty white, yet.

So in summary, work, work, school, school, school, enjoying pickup rides, eating mice, _____ Verb ending in ing _____ carrots, and floating. Oh, yeah, those last four activities are what the _____ Plural noun _____ have been doing this last year.

Merry Christmas from Peg, Jerry, Maria, Daniel, Eric, Tres (the dog), Betty (the cat), Riley (the rabbit), and of course Sushi (the fish)