Christmas with the Coleman Family

When _____Event_____ comes around, each Coleman has an important role to get everything done. Mom gets the gifts together and _____Present tense verb_____ them away where _____Pronoun_____ will not be seen until Christmas morning. Jill wraps the gifts and places them strategically under the _____Adjective_____ Christmas tree. Abby _____Present tense verb_____ holiday treats and provides entertainment with her dances. Dad supervises and makes sure that everyone is happy. Shadow lies on her bed, keeps it warm, and sleeps. Lilly _____Present tense verb_____ under the table and barks, barks, barks!

On Christmas Eve we _____Verb_____ into our car and head over the river and through the freeways to Grandma, Grandpa, and their cozy home. When we arrive, gifts in hand, we _____Verb_____ door bell and Samantha greets us with a _____Adjective_____ yip, yip, yip and endless kisses, aka licks. We hang out with our _____Plural noun_____; there is Zachary, Alexa, Maddie, Jack, Abby and Jill. Grandma makes sure each of us has a _____First name_____ hat to wear for the annual photo of her grandkids. Each year we line up on her sofa and she takes a picture of us, usually a goofy one. After this we have _____Noun_____ and open our gifts. When all fun is had, the Colemans start the long car ride back the same way we came.

Late at night, the whole family _____Present tense verb_____into bed with excitement _____Verb ending in ing_____our minds.

We all know the next morning will be chaotic, exciting, messy, but so _____Adjective_____and full of love that even those little things are forgotten. Christmas is a _____Adjective_____time for our family; we are all brought together in an indescribable way, love fills the air and everyone is happy.
