The Stranger

Nearly all the women wore _____ and the strings drawn tight round their _____.
_____ made their big stomachs bulge still more. I'd never yet noticed what big _____ old women usually have. Most of the men, however, were as _____ as _____ and they all carried _____. What struck me most about their _____ was that one couldn't see their _____ only a _____ glow in a sort of nest of wrinkles.

On _____ down, they _____ at me, and _____ their _____ _____ awkwardly, their _____ sucked in between their _____
_____. I couldn't decide if they were _____ me and trying to say something, or if it was due to some infirmity of age. I inclined to think that they were _____ me, after their fashion, but it had a _____ effect, seeing all those old fellows _____ round the keeper, _____ _____ me and _____ their _____ from side to side. For a moment I had an _____ impression that they had come to _____ in judgment on me.
