vegetables for breakfast?!?!

I woke up one Time of day to the smell of steamed Vegetable and my eyes watered in disgust. I pinched myself to wake up, and a platter with Number pieces of broccoli stared up at me.. mom says theres nothing better than steamed vegetables to begin your Time of day. I flipped the plate of broccoli and bolted for the Noun only to find out the Noun was getting farther and farther away and everywhere I looked I would see Vegetable. I tightend my Noun and closed my Noun but before I knew it Number pieces of Vegetable were shoved down my Part of the body. I started to sprout Color spuds on the top of my Part of the body and roots for my Part of the body. My face turned Color and all i could taste was Vegetable. In a night full of torture I wake up to see my mom steaming Number pieces of Vegetable.
