More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Mall

1. Plural Noun _____
2. Adjective _____
3. Noun _____
4. Proper Noun _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Name Of A Person _____
7. Adjective _____
8. Plural Noun _____
9. Proper Noun _____
10. Location _____

The Mall

A mall is a building or set of buildings that contain _____Plural noun_____ with interconnecting walkways enabling visitors to easily walk from store to store. The walkways may be _____Adjective_____.

In the mid-20th century, with the rise of the _____Noun_____and automobile culture in the United States, a new style of shopping centre was created away from city centres. The first shopping centre in the United States was _____Proper noun_____Village, which opened in 1931 in Dallas, Texas. The concept of the _____Adjective_____mall was pioneered by the Austrian-born architect _____Name of a person_____.

In many cases, regional and super-regional malls exist as parts of large superstructures which often also include office space, residential space, _____Adjective_____Plural noun_____and so forth. This trend can be seen in the construction and design of many modern supermalls such as _____Proper noun_____Mall in _____Location_____.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.