

Three Boys and Three Dogs

1. Adjective
2. Pronoun
3. Adjective
4. Adjective
5. Conjunction
6. Verb
7. Verb
8. Adverb
9. Proper Noun
10. Preposition
11. Noun

Three Boys and Three Dogs

There once was a neighborhood that had three dogs owned by three boys. These dogs were a lot like their owners. One boy was _____ Adjective _____ and his _____ Pronoun _____ never had a bath. The second boy was _____ Adjective _____ and his dog was hyper. The third boy was always _____ Adjective _____ and his dog was well trained. One day all three boys _____ Conjunction _____ all three dogs went to spend a day at a park. The dogs were very happy to be playing together, and were _____ Verb _____ and _____ Verb _____ all over each other, having a fun time. The three boys had found an old ball in the creek and were kicking it _____ Adverb _____. The lazy boy wanted to sit down, and just as he did two of the dogs came running up. The lazy dog was not with them! The three _____ Proper noun _____ ran off with the remaining two dogs and searched _____ Preposition _____ the park. They finally found the third dog, asleep under a _____ Noun _____. It is true how dogs can resemble their owners!