I know what your thinking..... your thinking that this title Adjective but it don't matter because we just typed that so more people would go on to this one. it don't have anything to do with what were going to talk about. now, i want to tell you about this title it actually is my mom's name. so don't make fun of her name or her.

Anyways, i don't know why we even wrote this story, we were Adjective and our mom said to 'GET A JOB YOU Adjective Adjective!' so now our job is..... Wait what is our job? we don't have one
