I Met A Boy

Once I met a boy named Boy's name. First I thought he was really Adjective, with his Color hair, Different color eyes, and pierced Body part. But once you get to know him, you'll think he is really Adjective and Adjective. But when my friend Girl's name (not yours) met him, she was all, ' I am so in love with him! OMG!! I have not met anyone so Adjective in my life! ' So they started dating and before ya knew it, they were talking about getting married! I was a part of the wedding.....which was not the nicest wedding ever. But now they are living together happily with their Number children.
