Harry Potter

The story opens with the unrestrained celebration of a _____ Adjective _____ wizarding world which for many years had been terrorised by Lord Voldemort. The previous night, Voldemort had discovered the refuge of the hidden Potter family, killed _____ Name of a person _____ and James Potter. However, when he attempted to kill Harry, the Avada Kedavra _____ Verb ending in ing _____ curse rebounded upon him, and Voldemort was destroyed, becoming nothing more than a _____ Noun _____: neither dead nor alive. Harry, meanwhile, was left with a distinctive lightning bolt-shaped scar on his _____ Part of body _____ the only physical sign of Voldemort's curse. Harry's _____ Adjective _____ defeat of Voldemort results in him being dubbed 'The Boy Who Lived' by the wizarding community.

The following night, a wizard named _____ Name of a person _____ delivers Harry to what will be his residence for many years afterward. The orphaned Harry is subsequently _____ Past tense verb _____ by his cruel, non-magical relatives, the Dursleys, who in attempt to rid him of his magical _____ Plural noun _____ hide his magical heritage and give him severe punishments after several strange occurrences.

However, as his eleventh birthday approaches, Harry has his first contact with the magical world when he receives

_____ Plural noun from _____ Proper noun School of Witchcraft and Wizardry, which are taken from him by his Aunt and Uncle before he has a chance to read them. On his eleventh birthday he is informed by Hagrid, the _____ Job title of Hogwarts, that he is in fact a _____ Noun and has been invited to attend Hogwarts. Each book chronicles one year in Harry's life, which is mostly spent at Hogwarts, where he learns to use

_____ Plural noun and _____ Verb _____ Plural noun. Harry also learns to overcome many magical, social, and _____ Adjective obstacles as he struggles through his adolescence, Voldemort's rise to power and the Ministry of Magic's consistent denials of Voldemort's threat for a whole _____ Period of time.
