More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Appointment

1. Noun _____
2. Adjective _____
3. Location _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Past Tense Verb _____
6. Adverb _____
7. Noun _____
8. Location _____
9. Same Verb (Present) _____
10. Adverb _____
11. Same Verb (Present) _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Adjective _____
14. Same Verb (Present) _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Noun _____
17. Location _____

The Appointment

A sixteen-year-old boy worked on his grandfather's _____Noun_____farm. One morning he drove a _____Adjective_____pickup truck into _____Location_____on an errand. While he was walking along the _____Adjective_____street, he saw Death. Death _____Past tense verb_____him. The boy drove the truck back to the farm as _____Adverb_____as he could. 'Give me your _____Noun_____, he begged. 'I'll go to _____Location_____. He'll never _____Same verb (present)_____me there.' His grandfather gave him the truck and his _____noun_____and the boy sped away _____Adverb_____. After he left, his grandfather went into _____location_____looking for Death. When he found him, he asked, 'Why did you _____Same verb (present)_____my grandson in such a _____Adjective_____way? He's only sixteen. He's too _____Adjective_____to die.' 'I am sorry about that,' said Death. I did not mean to _____Same verb (present)_____to him. But I felt _____Adjective_____when I saw him here. You see, I have a _____Noun_____appointment with him this afternoon-in _____Location_____.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.