

The Appointment

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Location
4. Adjective
5. Past Tense Verb
6. Adverb
7. Noun
8. Location
9. Same Verb (Present)
10. Adverb
11. Same Verb (Present)
12. Adjective
13. Adjective
14. Same Verb (Present)
15. Adjective
16. Noun
17. Location

The Appointment

A sixteen-year-old boy worked on his grandfather's _____ Noun _____ farm. One morning he drove a _____ Adjective _____ pickup truck into _____ Location _____ on an errand. While he was walking along the _____ Adjective _____ street, he saw Death. Death _____ Past tense verb _____ him. The boy drove the truck back to the farm as _____ Adverb _____ as he could. 'Give me your _____ Noun _____, he begged. 'I'll go to _____ Location _____. He'll never _____ Same verb (present) _____ me there.' His grandfather gave him the truck and his _____ noun _____ and the boy sped away _____ Adverb _____. After he left, his grandfather went into _____ location _____ looking for Death. When he found him, he asked, 'Why did you _____ Same verb (present) _____ my grandson in such a _____ Adjective _____ way? He's only sixteen. He's too _____ Adjective _____ to die.' 'I am sorry about that,' said Death. I did not mean to _____ Same verb (present) _____ to him. But I felt _____ Adjective _____ when I saw him here. You see, I have a _____ Noun _____ appointment with him this afternoon-in _____ Location _____.