POOP ON THE FREAKS

to the freaks i can\\'t get enough so the words hit the boy who can never be tough if somebody needs to compromise hashing out deals to cover lies

i predict a world that keeps you hanging on i\\'ve been around and around I\\'ll come to weather the storm and set up the sun

Disgusting to the freaks i can\\'t get enough

saw a friend recently begging for sympathy been holding my breath and TRYING NOT TO accept another apology

somebody needs to speak out wise

calling you from the top of friction calling you from the wrong direction to set up the sun
