A Visit to Baby Jesus

Of all the holidays, _____Child's_name_____ age _____Child's_age_____ of _____Child's_hometown_____liked Christmas the best. _____3_friends_or_relatives_____exchanged presents with _____Same_child's_name_____and told Christmas stories about the birth of Jesus in Bethlehem.

The star on top of the Christmas tree reminded _____Same_child's_name_____of the one that guided the three Wise Men to the Christ Child.

Gazing at the manger scene near the Christmas tree, _____Same_child's_name_____thought about following the star with the three Wise Men. Suddenly, a voice called _____His/her_(child)_____name.

_____Same_child's_name_____ come with us and follow the star!' said one of the Wise Men. 'You may ride with our caravan on this little donkey.'

Same child's name quickly dressed in traveling clothes and joined the caravan. After riding a long way, they arrived in Jerusalem. King Herod commanded his servants to bring them to the palace.

The Wise Men told Herod they were following the bright star to find Baby Jesus.

The king said, 'When you find the Child, return and tell me where He lives so I may also worship him.'

Same child's name remembered Same 3 friends saying that Herod was afraid Jesus would one day be king, and that Herod really planned to destroy Baby Jesus.

'I must tell the Wise Men about what Herod intends to do,' Same child's name thought.

After the caravan left the palace, _____He/she (child)_____explained Herod's evil plan to the Wise Men.

'That scoundrel!' In that case we won't tell anyone where to find the Child,' said one Wise Man.

'Jesus will be safe, thanks to _____Same child's name_____, said another.

The caravan continued its long journey. The bright star guided the travelers like a beacon of light.

_____Same 3 friends_____would enjoy this wonderful journey,' thought _____Same child's name_____.

Finally, the bright ray of light pointed to the small town of Bethlehem. Sheep, horses and cows silently welcomed the caravan.

Joseph opened the door and invited the travelers inside.

'Welcome, _____Same child's name_____. You have journeyed from a distant land,' said Joseph.

The Wise Men entered and bowed low before Mary and Baby Jesus. They presented costly gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. _____Same child's name_____crept close to Jesus and His mother, Mary.

Jesus was making little baby sounds while his mother hummed a lullaby.

'I wish _____Same 3 friends_____were here to feel God's love,' _____Same child's_name_____said.

Mary smiled at _____Same child's_name_____and said, 'You can always feel God's love if you keep Him close to your heart.'

The glow of light around the Holy Family became soft and Golden. Jesus slept soundly in his mother's arms.

_____Same child's_name_____also felt sleepy.

Finally, a Wise Man gently lifted _____Same child's_name_____onto the little donkey that waited in the Bethlehem night. _____He/she_(child)_____quickly fell to sleep during the long ride home.

The Wise Man whispered, 'Farewell child. We have brought you home to _____Same hometown_____.'

_____Same child's_name_____could see that the manger scene near the Christmas tree had changed. The three Wise Men had presented their costly gifts, and the little donkey stood nearby. But Baby Jesus was no longer just lying in the manager. Now, _____Same child's_name_____held Jesus close to _____His/her_(child)_____heart.
