More stories at WordBlanks.com

A Boy's Pet

1. Boy's Name _____
2. City _____
3. Something Valuable _____
4. Same Boy _____
5. Same City _____
6. Same City _____
7. Same Boy _____
8. Same Valuable _____
9. Last Name Of A Person _____
10. Profession _____
11. Same Boy _____
12. Same Boy _____
13. Pests _____
14. Active Verb _____
15. Same Boy _____
16. Animal _____
17. Same Boy _____
18. Same Animal _____
19. Same Pests _____
20. Same Boy _____
21. Same Last Name _____
22. Transportation (Plural) _____
23. Same Last Name _____

24. Same Transportation (Singular) _____
25. Same Boy _____
26. Same Animal _____
27. Emotion _____
28. Same Boy _____
29. Same Last Name _____
30. Same Boy _____
31. Same Boy _____
32. Proper Noun _____
33. Same Boy _____
34. Same City _____
35. Same Boy _____
36. Same Last Name _____
37. Same Last Name _____
38. Same Animal _____
39. Far Away Place _____
40. Pests _____
41. Same Boy _____
42. Same Last Name _____
43. Girl's Name _____
44. Same City _____

A Boy's Pet

Long, long time ago there lived a poor boy called _____Boy's name_____. He had no mother and no father, and often nothing to eat. One day he heard of the great city of _____City_____, where, said everyone, even the streets were paved with _____Something valuable_____. _____Same boy_____decided to go to _____Same city_____to seek his fortune.

_____Same city_____was a big and busy city, full of people both rich and poor. But _____Same boy_____could not find any streets that were paved with _____Same valuable_____. Tired, cold and hungry he fell asleep on the steps of a great house. This house belonged to Mr. _____Last name of a person_____, a rich _____Profession_____, who was also a good and generous man. He took _____Same boy_____into his house, and gave him work as a scullery boy.

_____Same boy_____had a little room of his own where he could have been very happy if it had not been for the _____Pests_____. They would _____Active verb_____all over him as he lay on his bed at night and would not let him sleep. One day _____Same boy_____earned a penny shining shoes for a gentleman, and with it he bought a/an _____Animal_____. After that _____Same boy_____'s life became easier - the _____Same animal_____frightened away all the _____Same pests_____, and _____Same boy_____could sleep in peace at night.

One day Mr. _____Same last name_____called all the servants of the house together. One of his _____Transportation (plural)_____was leaving for a far-off land with goods to trade. Mr. _____Same last name_____asked his servants to send something of their own in the _____Same transportation (singular)_____if they so desired, something which could perhaps be traded for a bit of gold or money. _____Same boy_____had only his _____Same animal_____to send - which he did with a _____Emotion_____heart.

_____Same boy_____continued to work as a scullery boy for Mr. _____Same last name_____ who was very kind to him. So was everyone else except the Cook who made _____Same boy_____'s life so miserable that one day _____Same boy_____decided to run away. He had reached almost the end of the city when he heard the _____Proper noun_____Bells ring out. 'Turn again _____Same boy_____, thrice Lord Mayor of _____Same city_____' chimed the bells. _____Same boy_____was astonished - but he did as the bells said and went back to Mr. _____Same last name_____.

When he returned he found that Mr. _____Same last name_____'s ship had returned, and that his _____Same animal_____ had been sold for a great fortune to the King of _____Far away place_____whose palace had been overrun with _____Pests_____. _____Same boy_____had become a rich man.

He soon learnt the business from Mr. _____Same last name_____, married his daughter _____Girl's name_____, and in time became the Lord Mayor of _____Same city_____three times, just as the bells had said.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.