A Boy's Pet

Long, long tin	ne ago there lived a po	oor boy called _	Boy's name	He had	l no mother	and no fathe	r, and often nothing to eat.	One day he heard of	the great city of	City	, where, sa	id everyone	e, even the str	eets were paved with	Something valuable	Same boy	decided to g	go to	Same city	to seek his fo	rtune.
Same city	was a big and bus	y city, full of pe	ople both rich	and poor. I	Butsan	ne boy COU	ld not find any streets tha	t were paved with	Same valuable	Tired, cold	and hungry	he fell aslo	eep on the ste	ps of a great house. T	his house belonged to	MrLast nai	me of a person	, a rich	Profession	, who was	also a good and gene	erous man. He took _	Same boy	into his house,	and gave h	im work as	a scullery bo	y.
Same boy	had a little room o	of his own where	e he could have	e been very	happy if it	had not been	for the Pests	. They would	all o	ver him as he l	ay on his b	ed at night	and would no	t let him sleep. One day	/ Same boy ear	rned a penny shi	ning shoes for	a gentlema	an, and with	it he bought	a/an Animal	After thatsan	ne boy's life l	pecame easier	- the	Same animal	frightened	away all the Same pests	, and Same boy	could slee	p in peace at n	ight.

One day Mr	Same last name	_called all the serva	ents of the house	e together. One	of his	portation (plural) was le	eaving for a far-c	ff land with goods t	o trade. Mr	Same last name	_asked his ser	vants to send something of the	eir own in the	Same transportation (singu	if they s	so desired, some	ething which co	uld perhaps be traded for a b	it of gold or mor	neySame boy	_had only his _	Same animal	to send - wh	ich he did with a Emoti	on heart.
Same boy	_continued to we	ork as a scullery boy	for Mrs	ame last name	who was very l	aind to him.
So was everyone	e else except the	Cook who made	Same boy 'S	s life so miserat	ole that one day Same boy	_decided to run	away. He had reach	ed almost the en	d of the city wh	nen he heard the	:
Proper noun	Bells ring out	. 'Turn agains	ame boy, thric	ce Lord Mayor	of Same city	' chimed
the bellss	ame boywas a	stonished - but he d	id as the bells sa	aid and went ba	ck to Mr.	Same last name•
When he returned	ed he found that	Mr. Same last name	's ship had	returned, and the	hat hissam	e animal had been sold fo	or a great fortune	to the King of	Far away place	whose palace h	ad been overrui	n with
Posts	Sama hay	had become a rich i	man

He soon learnt the business from Mr	Same last name	, married his daughter	Girl's_name	, and in time became the Lord Mayor of Same city	three times	s, just as the bells had said.
