make fun of your enemy

Hi my name is           Your name           and my enemys name is           Enemys name           today at           A place           i

          Punch kick etc.                     Enemys name           in the           Body part           for calling me a           Swearword           then when he was on the ground i made my pet           Animal                     Animals name                     Punch kick etc.           him then i called Enemys name           a           Swearword                     Swear word ending in ing                     Swearword                     Swearword           then i pulled out my fav weapon a(n)           Type of gun           and shot           Enemys name           in the ass atleast           Number times after           Enemys name           almost bled to death i saved him by takeing him to the hospital after they put him in a cast in the           Number           story room i           Punch kick etc.           his ass out the window while he was falling his cast broke and a few woodpeckers peck his arm off and when he hit the ground he was barley alive then his

          Swear word ending in ing           ass got ran over at the end of the day i went to his funeral where i sent his coffin on fire after they got the fire out and barried his           Swearword           ass i pushed a button witch caused to C4 explosives to blow the           Swearword           out of his           Swearword           ass.
