

Ice Cream Sunday

1. Year
2. Insect
3. Type Of House
4. Noun
5. Season
6. Present Tense Verb
7. Noun
8. Same Insect As The Begining
9. Adjective
10. Noun
11. Same Insect As The Begining
12. Time Of Day
13. Location
14. Location
15. Location
16. Same Insect As The Begining
17. Noun
18. Same Insect As The Begining
19. Same Insect As The Begining
20. Season

Ice Cream Sunday

In the year of our Lord _____Year_____ vast swarms of _____Insect_____descended upon our _____Type of house_____.

Twas a judgment upon us, yea certain, for how else could you explain the desecration of our _____Noun_____ the dimming hope of survival for the coming _____Season_____?

We tried _____Present tense verb_____methods to destroy the _____Noun_____: some attempted to burn the _____Same insect as the begining_____ some tried to _____Adjective_____or bury them. But alas, nothing, not even our _____Noun_____for deliverance, seemed able to stop the massive destruction of the _____Same insect as the begining_____.

Then, when we had lost all hope, the _____Time of day_____sky was filled with the hoarse cry of gulls and the sound of wings. Before our eyes, thousands of gulls descended over the _____Location_____ Location_____ _____Location_____and commenced a great feasting upon the _____Same insect as the begining_____. Twas a miracle of _____Noun_____. Every day the gulls came to eat the _____Same insect as the begining_____until there were no more _____Same insect as the begining_____left.

Our crops were saved and we survived the following Season.

.