An Audition Story

There once was a young man named _____ _____ who got into the prestigious California _____ University. He planned to major in _____ but more importantly, he decided he wanted to join the University _____ and Orchestra. He could _____ and _____ very well, but when he auditioned, he made _____ mistakes. He couldn't even sing _____ all the way through. Eric Belvin, the accompanist (who was now _____ years old), shook his head in embarrassment.

_____ That's enough!' yelled the dean of music, who often resembled a _____ _____ when he was angry.

'I'm so sorry,' apologized the prospective student. 'My brain is _____ with nerves. May I try again?'

_____, the dean grumbled, _____ his fingers against the desk.

Deciding to try a new approach, the young man _____ his best; he even _____ the
_____ that lined the dean's walls!

_____!' cried out the dean, _____ his hands in excitement. _____!'

'Does that mean I'm in?' asked the student. He _____ his thumbs nervously.

_____,

said the dean in a Adjective tone of voice. 'I will give you a scholarship of Number dollars per semester.' After writing the Adjective sum on a Noun that he had lying around on his desk, he rose from his seat and left the office to Verb in the choir room.

Exclamation!' said the student, looking Adverb at the scholarship amount. 'I can't wait to play my Noun for the band director, Mr. Event!'.
