Daddy touched my brother

Across the           Noun           I heard my           Adjective           ass           Adjective           brother playing with his toy           Noun          . I told him to           Verb           the fuck up but he wouldn't listen, so I asked my dad to           Verb           him           Noun          . Father entered the           Noun           with an           Verb ending in ing           penis and began           Verb ending in ing           obscenities such as! "DAMN IT YOU CAN           Verb           MY           Adjective           SHAFT".

My little brother           First name           was           Adjective           and dropped the toy           Noun           on the           Noun          . The next           Noun           you know, my dad inserts his           Noun           into my brother's           Plural noun           until tears           Past tense verb           down his           Noun          . The rape was followed by a           Adjective           beating, mainly with a           Noun          . Father left the room with a           Adjective           dick. My brother has never touched another toy train again.
