The First Date

Sam Wantland is a very ______guy who's about to take the Bar Exam. His ______ Molly Denson, is Adverb impressed with all that he's going, and wants him to know, every Noun how much she verb him. Today's Mad Lib is to remind of him their first event which couldn't have been more Adjective. Sam was about to pick Molly up for ______ and a ______. The first thing she saw when she opened the door was his Adjective Noun. She thought, "Oh - he is so Adjective. He, naturally, thought the same of her. They went to the movies and talked about things like ______ mustard colored ______ and their jobs. Molly thought it was quite ______ that Sam didn't know what to do with his ______once the movie started.

Oldies and Chuck. Sam Present tense verb easily, which made him even more attractive. Molly liked his intelligence and Noun but more importantly, she liked his kindness and the way he Present tense

verb when she spoke. Oh, and how dang Adjective he looked sitting across from her.

After closing down the restaurant, Sam drove Molly home - her Noun home, to be exact. She didn't want to seem too Adjective so she waved goodbye. She took a few steps before Sam called out, "Um, would you want to do this again Adverb. Molly wanted to play it Preposition but it was just not in her nature. She walked back over, said yes, and gave him a big Noun. (He likes to think she said something before the hug, but she doesn't recall this...)

Sam left, Adjective with how the first of many dates had gone, and dreamed about how Adverb Adjective funny, and Adjective Molly was, 10 years after they'd last seen each other. Molly went to bed that night, Verb to herself that she had gone on a date with her 7th grade Noun. She was Noun how much they had in common, and how Adverb they had talked for hours. She loved every minute of their first date, and couldn't wait to see him again. .
